

Guidelines for Applications Bledisloe Gold Medal for Landowners

The Award

The RASE Bledisloe Gold Medal for Landowners

The Prize

A gold medal and certificate together with honorary membership of the Society.

The Candidate

The award may be made to a landowner who has demonstrated outstanding achievement in the successful land management and development of an agricultural estate in England.

The Submission

The submission should include the name, qualifications and age of the candidate and a description (of not more than 500 words) explaining why the candidate should be considered for this award.

In particular judges will be looking for candidates who have:

- demonstrated excellent land management and farming practice
- developed alternative sources of income
- created features of benefit to the local community, the environment or for the wider public good.